Author:

Born in Montréal, Stéphanie Decelles is a journalist graduate from the University of Québec in Montréal. It is at night after work that she lets her imagination flow. Mother of two, her head is filled with stories. As a traveller, she shares her time between Montréal and her adopted country, Australia. Le Réveil du Dragon Chinois is her first novel

Story : (9 years and up):

During their holidays in Hong-Kong, Mathis and Lea meet Jing the young son of their father's friend, Than Cho. They have just arrived and strange events are taking place at the museum where Than Cho is the director. First, the person in charge of the precious stones is kidnapped and then, a thief steals the largest ruby in the world. But this is not all, someone is following the three friends.

They decide to conduct their own investigation to discover how all these events are interrelated. Will they be able to count on the help of Tzin Tao, the keeper of the Chinese dragon?

Mystery, suspense, magic and friendship.

Excerpt:

« Les lecteurs qui détiennent des informations au sujet de ces cambriolages ou au sujet de la suspecte sont invités à communiquer avec les policiers. Selon les bandes vidéo obtenues par les caméras de surveillance, la femme mystérieuse aux cheveux noirs et longs arbore un tatouage en forme de dragon chinois dans le cou, sous l'oreille gauche. Elle est sans doute dangereuse et pourrait être armée. »

Une voix grésille alors dans les hautparleurs :

— Mesdames et messieurs, ici votre capitaine. Dans quelques minutes, nous amorcerons notre descente. Je vous prie d'attacher votre ceinture et de redresser votre siège.
