In the parc national du Bic is a fox wearing a strange looking jacket. This bizarre little animal owns something very valuable. Unfortunately, he has lost it. Do you want to know what it is? Yes? Then you must climb aboard Luna's Volkswagen bus and go camping with him and his family. In this fairy tale like story, Carl Rocheleau uses his writing skills to create an endearing and intriguing story in which the candid childhood's universe awakens.

Themes: Fox, family, holidays, camping

Author:

The teacher and occasional writer, has been actively writing since 2005, although generally in science fiction. Carl has been published in magazines and has written a few novels and a comic book. He has always used his imagination to entertain adults, but parenthood has opened new doors for him, thus he presents this story for children aged six to eight years old.

Excerpt:

Là, un petit être vêtu d'un veston fouille dans une valise. Il est placé de dos, alors il ne voit pas Luna. Il laisse tomber toutes sortes d'objets de chaque côté de lui. Une vieille botte à droite. Une montre à gauche. Une fourchette tordue d'un côté. Un peigne édenté de l'autre.
Elle regarde bien l'animal et remarque ses petites passes arquées; c'est un renard.
